Irene Madeleine Lemay Wed to Joseph E. Ternes

BEISEKER.—St. Mary's Church, Beiseker, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday, June 27th, when Irene Madeleine Lemay, second youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Lemay, Trochu, became the bride of Joseph E. Ternes, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ike Ternes, Beiseker.

Mr., Mrs. Schwengler Mark Anniversary

BEISEKER.—A large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Schwengler gathered at their home on Thursday evening, June 29 to celebrate with them their golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwengler were married in 1900 in the old country, and left there in 1908, coming to Beiseker for two years, and then homesteaded south of Whittla until 1924, when they came back to Beiseker. Mr. Schwengler retired in 1949 leaving the farm to take up residence in the town. They are both very active, and enjoy working in their garden.

They have three daughters and four sons: Mrs. Joe Hagel, Beiseker; Mrs. P. Miller, Prelate, Sask.; Mrs. Joe Kiprick, William, Anton, Simon and Nick all of Beiseker, and 21 grandchildren.

The ladies prepared a lovely luncheon for this occasion with the rooms prettily decorated with peonies and other flowers. Rev. A. E. Tennant presented Mr. and Mrs. Schwengler with a beautiful rosary each from the family, and they also were given a hotplate from the other guests.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Ignatz, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schmalz, Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Velker, Mr. and Mrs. John Schwengler, Mr. and Mrs. George Pfeifer, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hagel, Mr. and Mrs. William Schwengler, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Schwengler, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kiprick, Mrs. E. N. Hagel, Mrs. Tom Hagel, Mrs. Andrew Schmalz and Mr. Simon Schwengler.

Rev. A. E. Tennant officiated at the marriage ceremony, and celebrated the nuptial mass. Rev. Fr. Conway, Trochu, was present in the sanctuary. Mrs. Lou Brosteaux played the wedding music during the mass, and Mrs. Killen sang several beautiful hymns.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in white satin gown styled with a nylon yoke, fitted bodice, with long lily point sleeves, and her full skirt was train length. Her floor length veil cascaded from an orange blossom and net halo, and she carried a shower bouquet of pink and red roses.

She was attended by Miss Florence Plum, Calgary, and Miss Kay Ternes, sister of the bridegroom; Florence chose a mauve taffeta gown with fitted bodice, full skirt with short fish-tail peplum, mauve elbow-length gloves, mauve beanie tied with tulle in a large bow under her chin, and carried a bouquet of yellow Shasta daisies; Kay chose a matching gown, gloves and head-dress in yellow, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink rose buds.

The flower girl, Roberta Clark, cousin of the bride, wore a formal gown of pink taffeta, and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.

The bridegroom was attended by his cousin, Max Ternes, and the bride's brother, Francis Lemay. Ushering the guests were Ted DeWaal and Stanley Schmalz.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held in the Memorial hall for the immediate relatives and friends. Later in the day a reception was held in the hall for 100 relatives and friends.

For their honeymoon trip to Great Falls the bride chose a navy tailored suit, navy and mauve accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses. On their return they will reside in the Beiseker district.

PILOT OFFICER Charles L. Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. F. Matthews of Hardisty, who received his pilot's wings and commission at a recent ceremony in Centalla, Ontario. Matthews will attend a two-month air armament course at Trenton, Ont., after which he will be posted to RCAF operational duties in Canada.

Agriculture Service Board Hears Farm Reports

BEISEKER.—A meeting of the Service Board of the Municipal District of Kneehill was held in the municipal office at Three Hills on June 20th, commencing at 9:45 a.m.

Present were Matt Schmalz, chairman; F. C. Peterson, P. J. G. Rock, A. P. L. Hogg, N. F. Bell, government representative; Wm. Gentleman, field superintendent. G. King was secretary of the meeting.

The secretary reported that the control order re SW-14-29-26-4 (Jaquith-Fischer) had been removed by council as requested.

Mr. Gentleman reported briefly re the following:

1. Fertilizer Demonstration — farm of Claude Webb—no visible results due to lack of moisture.

2. Wireworm Demonstration — farm of Sol Boese—results will be watched closely.

3. Grasshopper damage—east of Trochu seems to be the main trouble area; some bait is stationed at C. Campbells. Mixing stations are at Wayne and Rosebud.

4. Grass seed Demonstrations— at Kish farm and also 1 1/4 miles east of Three Hills—too dry and too early to give results.

Mr. Schmalz reported that the Trash Cover field day held near Beiseker was successful, despite a very windy day. Mr. Gentleman reported that the Tiller Match and Trash Cover field day near Three Hills was also quite successful.

Mr. Bell reported that Junior Club work will encourage the growing of forage crop demonstration plots.

The secretary was instructed to arrange for the ordering of a 10-lb. drum of TCA Weed Willer; and to apply to the government for enough grass seed for 28 miles of road sides.

The Service Board program for 1950-51 was discussed in detail. It was moved by Mr. Hogg that the Service Board program as drafted be recommended to council for adoption. Carried.

A letter from Mr. Ballantyne, Director of Veterinary Services, was read re Bang's Disease Control. Moved by Mr. Peterson that the secretary reply to the letter stating that this board is supporting voluntary arrangements but, due to the shortage of vets, is not pressing for compulsory calfhood vaccination. Carried.

During the afternoon the whole board and the secretary made an inspection tour, giving particular attention to the following:

1. Fertilizer demonstration of Glen Jones on NE-35-31-23-4—in effectiveness of liquid fertilizer clearly evident.

2. Grass seed demonstration in ditch 1 1/4 miles east of Three Hills—small growth only, due to dryness.

3. Toad Flax on SW-22-32-24-4 — Silversides — effect of sodium chlorate spraying in 1949 noted.

4. A quarter NE 1/4-16-32-26-4, was becoming very seriously debilitated by wind erosion and that adjoining lands were also being affected by same. The board recommended that council take it over by Control Order.

5. SE 1/4-16-32-26-4 board met with Sam Maerz and discussed the wind erosion problem with him. He stated he was willing to co-operate, but was having difficulty due to the condition of the NE 1/4-16-32-26-4.

6. A farm west of Sunnyslope had been badly infested with hoary cress but it appeared that

Mr. Taylor, by spraying and cultivation, was controlling the weed menace very well.

7. The board looked at the N 1/2 and SE-13-31-26-4 (Weigum and Goertzen) — this land is still a problem and will have to be watched closely.

The meeting was then adjourned. Next meeting to be on call of the chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lohrke and Anne, Mr. and Mrs. P. Oxford and Mr. and Mrs. Darce Olsen spent the week-end at High River.

Alex Metzger, Fred Haase and Soli had a good week-end fishing, and at least had eight fish to bring home.

Just had some flash news! Bill Tidy says that he and Lloyd Simmons had very good fishing and returned with both pike and perch. He thinks it is better fishing when you don't follow all the rules and regulations of some of our supposed to be real fishermen.

Mrs. Nick Velker, Jr., and children are spending the week with her parents at Swalwell.

Mr. Nick Velker, Jr., his sister Christina and their parents visited Medicine Hat during the week. Mr. Velker had to attend the Stampede there.

Patricia Young returned to the east to be with her father in Toronto. She left from Calgary by plane Thursday, and would get there in seven hours. ## New War Crisis

As this is written, radio news broadcasts are flooding out to an anxious Alberta a steady stream of war crisis flashes arising out of the Asiatic war that has flared in Korea.

Albertans, with other people, are hoping that it will be nothing more than a crisis that will somehow pass, but the threat of World War III is now more ominous and real than ever before.

In Korea, the Russian-backed northerners have invaded the southern republic, which is supported by the United States. It is surely a testing ground for international conflict if nothing else. And if another war comes, it shall surely be said that World War III actually started on the day that Communist aggression flared in Korea.

If World War III does become a reality, Canada will certainly not be a behind-the-lines-nation, protected by a vast ocean. For armed battle will parade the streets and highways of the land, with Alberta possibly destined to the fate of another Belgium.

One can well imagine the terror that would strike in our hearts if enemy planes fill our skies, and the sorrow that we will know as our men go off to another battle.

Once again it can only be reiterated that decent peoples everywhere are praying that this is not it—that "it" will never again come to pass.

The Welfare State

Canadians are used to hearing the "welfare state" talk emanating from United States politicians, and may have by now come to believe that it is the U.S. that has the world's most extended social security system, and that our southern neighbor is spending the biggest part of its government dollar on such measures.

The actual fact is that Canada is spending far more per capita on the welfare state than is the U.S.

Last year the United States spent six cents of every budget dollar on social welfare, while Canada spent 22 cents on the same measures. But in the field of defence, the situation was somewhat different. Of every budget dollar, the U.S. spent 32 cents on military protection while Canada expended only 18 cents.

In view of this, and whether or not one is behind the welfare state idea, it seems rather funny to hear of lambasting American Republicans spouting off about the vast amount of money the Democratic Congress is spending on socialism! With only six cents of every dollar going to social welfare, such statements hardly make sense.

The United States is still the world's prime example of private enterprise and capitalism. The social welfare idea, good or bad, has hardly scratched the surface of American political thought.

Those complaining Republicans should come to Canada if they want to beef! With this country spending three times as much proportionately on welfare, they'd have three times as much to beef about!

Death in a Coal Mine

From Calgary Albertan

To the families and comrades of the coal miners killed at Cadomin, a mining community about 35 miles east of Jasper, goes a great wave of sympathy from all the people of Alberta.

Coal mining is a dangerous business under the best of conditions. One of the hazards not usually counted on is flooding. In this case a torrent of water from a mountain stream engulfed the mine and trapped the men. They had no chance.

It is encouraging to see that the miners' union at Drumheller has concurred in the need for immediate dismissal of any miner caught smoking at or in a mine. That anyone should deliberately endanger the lives of his associates is unthinkable. Thoughtlessness would be the only excuse. But under such circumstances no excuse is good enough. Every possible precaution should be taken to reduce the hazard of mining.

Diary of a News Editor

By RAYMOND ARGYLE

The chain of weeklies for which this news editor works embraces central and northern Alberta with 30-odd home-town papers, ranging in size from the South Edmonton Sun, serving the 40,000 residents of Edmonton's South Side, to such small communities as Czar, where the Clipper is read by most everyone in the district.

It is not by any means a monopoly on Alberta publishing, because there is well over 100 weeklies in the province, and in the main, it is the smaller towns that Community Publications serves.

However, we are fortunate in having some of the most promising and progressive towns in the west on our roll call. Such communities as Redwater, Lac la Biche and Morinville stand to rank among Alberta's leading towns in the very near future.

Over 100 correspondents send in news from as many communities in the province, some of it well-written and legible, but some that would harden the heart of the softest news editor.

Yet we are grateful for these correspondents who almost without fail sit down week after week to send us the news of their communities, and the doings of their friends and neighbors.

Nothing Trivial

To us it is not a trivial matter. Lives of the fine people in little towns mirror the lives of the human race everywhere. What they do may not be world-shaking, and thank God it is not, for world-shaking events are usually ones of tragedy, but they are events that are every bit as important as those recorded by the highly-paid columnists on the society pages of the New York papers.

Thus we would like to make two appeals. One to the correspondents of our papers, and one to the people whose doings are mirrored in our columns.

To the correspondent we would say that we are giving our most careful attention to your weekly letters, hoping, incidentally, that you'll not fail to send in your regular reports. We would request you to leave room at the beginning of your stories for us to write headlines, for you not to place more than one complete story on one page, to write only on one side of the paper, and to include the time-honored '30' symbol at the tail-end of each story.

More Tolerance

To the people about whom our correspondents write, we would like to make a plea for a little more tolerance and understanding on the part of a small minority who make the job of a news-gatherer sometimes difficult.

There are some people, who for reasons we have honestly never been able to determine, shrink from the slightest publicity and place all sorts of obstacles in the way of correspondents, and then are insulted when their names do not appear in print!

Then of course there is the overflowing person who wants columns and columns devoted to their smallest social affair, but we think our reporters would far rather deal with friendly people than with the close-mouthed variety.

Home-Town News

Sometimes an unmeant misinterpretation of some incident can cause bad feeling. An example of this is the doctor who became quite concerned over an item which reported that one of his patients had to be moved to the city for further treatment. Now the doctor was not at all at fault, and in fact had been giving excellent care to the patient, but the story neglected to mention this. So there you have an instance of a man taking exception to a story that was not intended to hurt anyone.

But in conclusion, remember that there is nothing more gratifying to a newspaper reader than to turn to his own home-town or district news. For this the correspondent is responsible. But it is not an easy job, and he sometimes gets too little thanks for his efforts.

Scriptural Meditations

By AINSLEY BLAIR

There is but little benefit derived from a hasty reading of the Scriptures. One may read the whole Bible through, and yet fail to see its beauty or comprehend its deep and hidden meaning. One passage studied until its significance is clear to the mind, and its relation to the plan of salvation is evident, is of more value than the perusal of many chapters with no definite purpose in view and no positive instruction gained. Keep your Bible with you. As you have opportunity, read it; fix the texts in your memory. Even while you are walking the streets, you may read a passage, and meditate upon it, thus fixing it in the mind.

Welfare Crisis Looming Over Indian Status In New Act

A far-reaching crisis in the welfare of Alberta's 7,000 native Indians is looming in the foothills province, as proposed legislation to enact Bill 267—a new Indian Act—is arousing widespread opposition.

The rewriting of the act has been brought about by attempts to modernize the national status of the Indians, yet it may have far-reaching effect, with alarm among the Indians reportedly reaching proportions of panic.

Major points of controversy in the question are proposed government authority over Band funds, allowance of Indians to consume liquor off reservations, and the possibility of the vote being extended to the natives.

Unique feature of the matter is that the natives themselves, for the first time in Canada's history, are taking an active part in discussion of the laws which govern their place in Canada's society.

A curious part of the debate is that although the vote has been extended to Canada's Eskimos, the government recently defeated a measure to allow Indians the franchise. This may be in part due to the fact that Indian groups have denied any interest in the vote, stating that to acquire the franchise would mean losing other, and more valuable, rights.

Indians Vote in B.C.

In B.C., however, the Indians are allowed to vote in provincial elections. They have elected one member of their own race to sit in the legislature at Victoria. He is a member of the CCF party.

Under the new bill, Minister of Indian Affairs Hon. Walter Harris would have practically absolute authority over Band funds, to add or delete members of the Band, and to ask for the appointment of a committee of two whites and one Indian with power to terminate the existence of a Band without consulting members of the tribe.

In fact, throughout the wording of the act appear such phrases as 'the decision of the minister is final and conclusive.'

Another serious objection is the arbitrary casting out of the bands of descendants of mixed marriage between whites and Indians. The point is raised that what would happen to an Indian woman who married a white man, only to have the man later desert her and her children.

Indians are also rebellious over Section 100 of Bill 267 which would prohibit any Indian from engaging legal defense to protect himself, his band or his reserve, or to make any complaint to the government itself, without the written consent of the Minister.

Too Much Power

Indians further contend that the Minister is given power to break every treaty and every agreement ever made between Indians and the Crown.

Question of the right to vote apparently does not worry Indian leaders much, as it has been suggested that should they be given the franchise, it would be the termination of payment of treaty money.

Indians are free from taxation in Canada. Not because they haven't the right to vote, but because they gave up their claims to rich and valuable lands in treaties with the government.

Treaty money of $5 per head, with more for chiefs, is paid once a year. It is distributed through either Indian Affairs Superintendents or RCMP officers.

Meanwhile, however, the federal government has launched a widespread health program among Indians, particularly in the North West Territories.

A full-time dentist has been appointed to care for the Indians of the north as the first plank in a full health program.

Appointment was announced last week through the Department of National Health and Welfare.

Social Security

Payment for social security measures such as baby bonuses, unemployment insurance, etc., are expected to cost Canadian taxpayers about half a billion dollars in the present fiscal year. This sum will exceed by $22,000,000 the total of all Dominion government expenditures for the fiscal year ended in March, 1935.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON:

Story of Israelites Is Retold Once Again

In the third month after leaving Egypt, the Israelites reached Mount Sinai, a part of the mountains known as Jebel Musa, "the Mount of Moses," a peak about 7,500 feet high.

Here the people were charged to keep a reverent distance while Moses and Aaron went up on the Mount to talk with Jehovah.

The language of Jehovah in his conversation with Moses on the mount, is highly significant. God declares that he has chosen the Israelites to be a holy nation, and a kingdom of priests. These people are to minister to the world in holy things. As priests, they have direct access to God; as a holy nation they are separated and distinct from other nations, called to do a special service for God. However, there is an "if" connected with God's promise, as stated in our memory verse, Exodus 19:5: "If ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant—then ye shall be mine own possession from among all people." Many of us forget the "ifs" of life, in claiming the promises of God.

Moses holds much the same position among the Jews that George Washington holds among Americans. He is their fearless leader. As one writer points out, the amazing thing about him is that he never deliberately tried to establish himself as a leader, but that he let God drive him into leadership.

The easy thing for Moses to have done was to stay in Egypt, as a prince in the court of Pharaoh. But instead, he followed the command of God to go and suffer for his people, and lead them out of their bondage. After being convinced that God would be with him, he had the will to serve, which is the first great characteristic of a great man. His leadership ability was consecrated to the will of God.

It was while Moses was on the Mount of Sinai that God delivered to him what has come to be known as the Decalogue, or Ten Commandments. These commandments are commonly regarded as the gift of God to the people of Israel through Moses, one of the most important gifts they received. Many scholars agree that the first four commandments deal with man's relation to God, the last six with his relation to his fellow man. Peake's Commentary on the Bible says: "It must always be remembered that negatives imply a positive, and that those of the decalogue rest upon a principle, the foundation of both religion and mortality, that man's true life involves fellowship: 'Thou shalt live in fellowship with thy God and with thy family, tribe, nation, and (eventually) fellow men.'"

Realizing the importance of having a place of worship at the very heart of the state, Moses initiated the building of a "tent of meeting," or sanctuary. The enthusiasm of the Israelites in following the suggestion of God and of Moses is inspiring. They not only offered liberally of their goods, but of their time and labor. In fact, they were so liberal, they had to be restrained and, as a result, they gave an incredible fortune to the Tabernacle.

As a token of divine approval, the cloud, which the Lord had provided to lead them through the wilderness, took up a new position over the Tent of Meeting. All through the rest of the wilderness wanderings, it remained there, with fire shining in it at night. When the fire and cloud were lifted from the Tent, it was a signal to break camp, and march on. God in the cloud and fire, was thus with his people both day and night.

Perhaps the greatest contribution that Moses made to his people was that he brought a whole nation into an awareness of God—he put the Tabernacle at the very heart of their life as a nation. Wherever they went, they carried their Ark; it was a holy sacred thing, the symbol, the abiding-place of the spirit of their God. The time came in Israel when the people were scattered; their precious Ark was lost and they went into captivity. But, even here, they were conscious of the presence of the Tabernacle and the Ark; they carried them in their hearts.

SOCIAL CREDIT DECIDES POLICIES ON OWNERSHIP

A public utility should be established only when individual enterprise has failed to provide satisfactory service. This is now a plank of the Social Credit party's national platform.

The policy concerning public and private ownership of utilities was formulated recently, it was learned last week.

The statement will be part of a new manifesto.

A government should enter the utilities field only when private companies have failed to provide service at reasonable cost, the Social Credit officials believe.

When a real monopoly exists or is threatened in a field other than public utilities, the government should then enter the field on a competitive basis rather than as a state monopoly, it is also contended.

'Loan Closet' Aids Cancer Victims

One of the life-saving services of the Canadian Cancer Society has the intriguing name of "the loan closet." From this store room sick-room supplies are sent out to cancer patients being treated at home. This is in addition to the dressings service, and it can provide a complete hospital room for cancer sufferers. Hospital beds, mattresses, overhead tables, sheets and pillow cases, hospital gowns, pneumonia jackets and wheelchairs are available.

While research goes on seeking the cure for cancer—much of it on grants from the Cancer Society—the society does not forget the incurable. In the past year, an Edmonton woman was found dying of cancer in almost destitute condition. Her last weeks were made more comfortable in a temporary hospital room set up in her home by the cancer society. This and other services are financed by an annual campaign for funds.

After nine weeks of the campaign, nearly $53,000 has been collected. Donations, and applications for cancer services can be sent to the Cancer Society at 10029 Jasper avenue, in Edmonton.

ANNUAL JAMBOREE PRESENTED BY UKRAINIAN GROUPS AT THORHILD

THORHILD. — Thorhild was the scene of the Annual Jamboree of the Canadian Ukrainian Youth Association, branch of the Ukrainian Self-Reliance League of Canada, for the territory north of the North Saskatchewan river, on Sunday, June 11th, 1950.

Locals taking part were Thorhild, Radway, Waskatenau, Smoky Lake and Spedden. Approximately 400 persons attended.

Rev. M. Fyk of Radway, and Rev. W. Senechen, principal of St. John's Ukrainian Institute in Edmonton, officiated the service, conducted in the Thorhild Ukrainian Orthodox Church.

The Ladies Aid of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church prepared the lovely dinner, and accommodated everyone attending.

The main event of the afternoon was a sports program, in which Locals from Thorhild, Waskatenau, Radway and Spedden took part. In the men's event, Thorhild defeated Waskatenau 11-6; Spedden defeated Radway 10-9 in a brilliant last-inning homer, and the top honors went to Thorhild in the final, with Thorhild out-scoring Spedden 11-4.

In the girls' event, Spedden defeated Waskatenau with a whooping score of 27-14.

The evening was filled with a concert, prepared by Mr. S. Boyko, Mr. N. Bodnar and Rev. M. Fyk, taking most of the burden on their back to prepare it. Many fine recitations, solos, dances and choruses under the direction of Rev. Fyk, were heard by a capacity audience in the town hall. Each CUYA Local was represented and contributed to the concert.

The highlight of the day was the Coronation of Elsie Swetz of Waskatenau, as Queen of the Jamboree, and Nadia Wozemirsky, of Radway, Olga Chomiak of Spedden, Alice Klymchuk of Thorhild, and Olga Tkatch of Smoky Lake, her ladies-in-waiting, as Queen's runners-up.

Contestants will compete in the Dominion Popularity Contest, at Winnipeg, Oct. 1.

New Book Sketches Day In Life of Pope Pius

A new book by an Alberta author is reaching wide popularity on the counters of Alberta book stores.

It is 'A Day with the Pope,' a 64-page book by Rev. Chas. Hugo Doyle, formerly of Edmonton. It sketches an actual day in the life of His Holiness.

The book is copiously illustrated with pictures of His Holiness. He is shown at his office desk, conducting private audiences, greeting distinguished visitors or members of the church hierarchy, and in other phases of his daily routine.

The author stresses the exacting nature of the Pope's daily routine. Many of the Pontiff's official papal writings are done at night in his private suite, after his day's official business is completed.

"The awful toil that such a full schedule exacts of any vicar of Christ is brought out by the fact that the average reign of the last 24 popes has been only 12 years," says the Tarrytown priest.

Pope Pius, the former Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli, became Pontiff in 1939. He now is 74 years old.

The author was born in Kingston, Ont., and now is assistant pastor of St. Teresa's parish, North Tarrytown, N.Y.

He was educated for the priesthood at St. Joseph's seminary in Edmonton and St. Augustine's seminary in Toronto, was stricken with heart disease 10 years ago while a pastor in Alberta. At that time he was given only a year to live. He was transferred to North Tarrytown to be near specialists.

Since then he has written four other books about the Pope and one giving advice to those contemplating marriage or newly married.

Morinville Man Treated By New Miracle Drug

Norman Weiss of Morinville, third case to be treated in the Kinsmen research bed in the University hospital, has greatly recovered through the use of the cortisone treatment from a rare disease causing inflammation of the blood vessels.

At the time of his admission to the University hospital, Mr. Weiss was suffering severe abdominal pains from a disease which is usually fatal. During his treatment, he was under the care of a group of University hospital physicians and received daily injections of cortisone for 25 days. Within a few days, Mr. Weiss was able to be up and about and within six weeks was well enough to go home, subject to periodic medical checks.

The research bed in which Mr. Weiss was treated, was financed by a grant from the Kinsmen Club of Edmonton to further medical research in the hospital.

Cortisone, a hormone of the adrenal gland, first developed about two years ago, was supplied through the National Research Council.

Letter to Louisa

Mother Won't Allow Young Daughter to Wed

Dear Louisa: I am seventeen years old and stay with mother. I want to get married to a young man of 21 who loves me and has asked me to settle down with him.

We have been going out steady for about two years and we know each other well and are sure of our happiness.

My mother will not hear of it. She likes the young man but she says I am too young to get married. I have a sister who is unhappily married and she keeps reminding me of her.

I sometimes feel like calling the whole thing off. But, I love him and do want to be his wife. What do you advise?

Answer:

Seventeen is rather young to get married and take on the responsibilities of a home and family. However, you do have two things in your favor. To begin with, he is old enough to support you and I presume that he has a good job. Next, you have known him and gone with him long enough to know something about him.

You did not say whether you had finished school or not. If you haven't I think it would be wise to put off marriage until you have completed your education.

The trouble with getting married so young is that your tastes in many ways are not definitely formed. The man we think a perfect hero at that age, may leave you cold when you reach your twenties. Also, the girl who hasn't had fun at parties, etc., when she is young, tends to look back with regret and bemoan her fate when she is tied down to the home with babies when she would really like to be dancing or seeing movies.

I think what you do and your happiness will depend to a great extent on what kind of temperaments you and your fiance have. If you are the quiet types, who are willing to settle down and take on all the responsibilities that marriage demands, then everything may work out all right. But if he is undependable and craves a good time and excitement, you will be taking a risk.

As to your sister's unhappy marriage — there are many happy ones and many unhappy ones. Each one depends on the dispositions and characters of the two people who make it or break it.

LOUISA.

Self Feeding Hogs Not Always Best

Self-feeding hogs has become so general now-a-days that feeding in this way has become the accepted method in many districts.

But self-feeding should not lead to carelessness and to neglect of the pigs. It is important to watch the development of the pigs, possibly more so than with hand feeding, and prepare a feed mixture, suitable to their growth and condition. To do this, the feed mixture will need to be varied from time to time.

In developing feed mixtures for self-feeding, possibly the simplest way is to consider first the feed mixtures used for hand feeding. There are commercial pig starters, pig growers, and pig finishers available, or the operator can mix his own mixtures from home-grown grains along with protein and mineral supplements. When self-feeding such mixtures it is advisable to include more of the bulky feeds such as oats, alfalfa meal or bran. With increased bulk in the ration the pig will still satisfy his appetite, but will consume less of the fattening feeds included in the mixture.

Complete information on the self-feeding of swine, suitable feed mixtures and a plan with construction details of a self-feeder are contained in Circular No. 129 "The Self-Feeder for Hogs" which can be obtained free upon request from Information Service, Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

New Company Enters Alberta Oil Scene

Outstanding new entry into the expanding Alberta oil scene is Barons Oil of Calgary, an independent concern holding title to some of the most promising oil lands on the prairies.

Possessing a 40,000 acre tract near the town of Barons, south of Calgary, the firm has launched a widespread stock sales campaign aimed at over-financing their project four or five times in excess of required capital, in what president R. Allen Brown describes as "an additional protection to investor's money."

Surrounding the promising Barons land are vast tracts held by such big oil companies as Standard and Continental. Just outside the Barons limit are two successful wells, one oil and one natural gas.

Natural gas and traces of oil have been sighted on the Barons land.

President Brown told this newspaper last week that his company was over-financing the project so that the security of the investor's money would not be dependent on the success of the first well. Company's first well is due to spudd in about August 20.

"Greatest industrial development in Canada's history," is the way Brown, an oil man from way back, describes the recent Alberta discoveries.

"Canadians should take an active part in the development of their greatest national asset," the firm's president added.

Mr. Brown has been a successful operator in the California oil industry for a number of years, and is now in partnership with a group of well established Alberta businessmen.

His associates include L. H. Schoof, Claresholm rancher; C. V. Bennett, Claresholm lawyer; I. G. Navarre, Calgary contractor; and John A. Gow, Calgary businessman.

During the last three years a number of new Alberta oil companies have scored outstanding success. These include such firms as Leduc Consolidated, whose stocks have risen from nine cents to $1.75; Roxana, with stock increases from three cents to $1.03; and Federated Petroleum, with stock increases from 23 cents to $2.55.

OFFERING

1,400,000 Shares BARONS OIL LIMITED

Capital Stock 25c Per Share

No Par Value—Non Assessable

BARONS OIL LIMITED is inviting public participation in the drilling and testing of a large block of acreage surrounding the Town of Barons, Alberta.

The Management of Barons Oil Limited consists of experienced and successful oil operators, and business men. The new Company is headed by R. Allen Brown, President, who has experienced many years of successful oil operations in California. He has been actively engaged in the rapidly expanding Canadian Oil Industry for the last two years.

The Company's program calls for the drilling of its first test well on a 39,360 acre Reservation in the Barons area. Its holdings are about 25 miles Northwest of Lethbridge, in Townships 11, 12 and 13, and Ranges 22, 23 and 24, all West of the 4th Meridian.

While this must be considered a speculation, and it is a speculation, the large block of acreage held by Barons Oil, plus the finding of both oil and gas some two miles from the South end of Barons holdings, makes this a highly preferred test.

A geographical survey of Gravity Meter, plus slim hole core testing has been completed.

You are invited to join the development program of this new Company.

Doctors believe that many highway accidents are due to an eye disease known as glaucoma which prevents its victims from seeing properly to the sides. As only a thorough medical examination will reveal the disease and since no glasses will improve the sight, glaucoma, in many instances, is never diagnosed. The disease is more prevalent in middle and later years.

to visit their folks and have left for Eagle Lake. Hope they have better luck fishing than some Beiseker people who went there a few weeks ago.

Little Jimmy Schmaltz has had the misfortune to fracture a bone in his foot, whilst he was swinging. Instead of being able to get home any day as was expected lately, he is laid up for another few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schmaltz had as their guests during the past week, Mr. and Mrs. Balsar Vetter from North Dakota and his mother. Balsar is a cousin to Mr. Schmaltz, and Mrs. Albina Vetter, his aunt.

Balsar is from Bismarck, North Dakota, and Mrs. Albina Vetter from Linton, North Dakota. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schmaltz, Val Schmaltz's, Ed Hagel's, Wm. Hagel's, Val Zacher's, Calgary, and Mike Schmaltz's, Calgary. On their way home they intend to stop over at Hamilton, Montana, to see some other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Seizler were visiting at Brooks on the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Schwarzenberger are down from Edmonton visiting with his mother, sisters and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tidy, together with Mr. and Mrs. L. Simmons, a former C.N.R. agent in Beiseker, got away to a good early start to Pine Lake. Let us know, Bill, how many.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Perks and to Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Sander on their baby daughters, born the latter part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Lount and Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus, of Detroit, Michigan, are spending a few days at Banff.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Wright have left for their cottage at Sylvan Lake for their three weeks' holiday. They expect to visit Banff and return by Jasper during this time as well. Mr. Wright has been relieved by Mr. J. W. Simpson, Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meldinger spent last week-end at Banff. They took Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Bunyan up to their summer abode. Lorne has a position in Banff for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mayer and Mr. and Mrs. Florian Mayer left last Wednesday for a trip to Philadelphia, and possibly New York.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kroschel attended the stampede at Ponoka last week. We understand that Mr.

Kroschel entered a roping horse.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Murray and family and Mr. Plante left last Saturday for Edmonton, where the men will be attending summer school for six weeks.

We were sorry to lose Miss MacDonald and Miss Cox from our teaching staff, but wish them well in their new undertakings.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schleppe are here from Kelowna. They say that the fruit crops there are much the same as the grain crops here.

Br. and Mrs. Fred Lavole spent the week-end at Pine Lake. Here's hoping that Freddie brings home a truck load of fish.
